FOREWORD

During visits overseas after the adjournment of the 1st session of the 84th Congress, several Members had called to their attention that pensions were being paid for many individuals residing in foreign countries who had relinquished their American citizenship. (Pension is a benefit, legally a gratuity, which is paid for a non-service-connected disability which renders the person unemployable or payments to a widow or child of such veteran. Some earlier pension laws provided a pension on attaining a given age.)

Upon investigation, it developed that over one-half million dollars was being expended monthly in this category—$658,629.82 to be exact. The average monthly payment to a veteran was $78.91 while for the dependents it was $52.15 or an overall average of $69.14. (All figures as of February 1956.) With the exception of the Philippines the payments are in American dollars.

In the citizenship category 61 percent claimed foreign citizenship, 5.2 percent dual, only 18.9 percent had American citizenship and 14.9 percent could not be classified. This was based on 9,526 cases—6,047 veterans and 3,479 dependents. A total of 1,421 was not identifiable as to citizenship.

All countries throughout the world are included in the survey except the Republic of the Philippines. That country was omitted for the reason that it presents a special and unique situation since it was formerly a possession of the United States, and the citizenship of the beneficiaries has been changed by law rather than by decision of the individual.

The committee is indebted to Mr. J. F. Cannon, Chief Disbursing Officer of the Treasury and to his assistant, Mr. Lawrence Levy, for supplying the 9,500 names and addresses of the beneficiaries. Following receipt of this information it was relayed to Mrs. Catherine Ramsey of the State Department who forwarded the individual names to consular officers throughout the world for determination of citizenship. She was most diligent and helpful in speeding the return of the completed cases. The compilation has been completed under contract with the Bureau of the Census. Mr. Simon Yablon and Mrs. Evelyn Jett, of that agency, have expedited the processing of the statistics.

OLIN E. TEAGUE,
Chairman, Committee on Veterans' Affairs.
